

Kyoto University Ancient History Seminar

4 February, 2023

Department of European History
Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University

Diving into Asia Minor: Multiple Sources for the Hellenistic and Imperial Greek World

Organizer: Masataka Masunaga (Kyoto University)

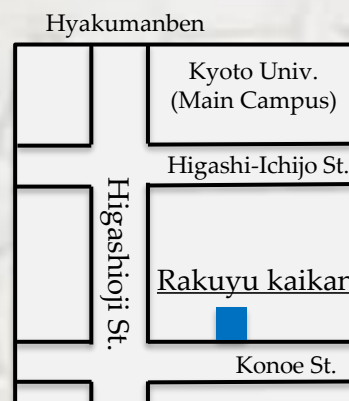

Programme

- 13.00 Opening Remarks
- 13.05 Kota Kishimoto (Doshisha University)
How Can We Study the Koinon in Lycia? Focusing on Its Sources and Approaches
- 13.40 Hamdi Şahin (Istanbul University)
Demography of Corycus during the Roman Imperial Period
- 14.15 Akiko Moroo (Chiba University of Commerce)
Tombs for All to See: Mortuary Landscape and the Local Identity in the Hellenistic and Roman Lycia
- 14.50 – 15.00 Break
- 15.00 Masataka Masunaga (Kyoto University)
Coin Fever in Roman Asia Minor: Civic Representation on Small Canvases
- 15.35 Fuki Ono (Kyoto University)
Greek Cities in Asia Minor and the 'Periegetic' Literature
- 16.10 Yasuhiro Katsumata (Kyoto University)
Trojan Heroes in the Second Sophistic Literature
- 16.45 Closing Remarks

Venue: Rakuyu kaikan (楽友会館), Conference Room 1&2 (2F)

Co-organizers: Hamdi Şahin (Istanbul University)
(日本学術振興会 外国人招へい研究者 短期)
Takashi Fujii (Kyoto University)

Contact: Masataka Masunaga (rikou_zeus@yahoo.co.jp)

Please register your participation here!

京都大学
KYOTO UNIVERSITY